ADA POSSESSES PLUCK AND VIM

PONTOTOC TOWN GAINS IN WEALTH AND POPULATION.

TWO LARGE INDUSTRIES

CEMENT AND ASPHALT INDUSTRIES PROMISE TO MAKE ADA ONE OF THE GREAT CITIES OF SOUTHWEST—MANY PUBLIC UTILITIES ACQUIRED.

The headlines above are replicas of those appearing in the Guthrie State Capital introducing the following article about the city of Ada.

Guthrie State Capital.
"What Has Ada Done," is the title which friends of Otis B. Weaver, publisher of the Ada Daily News, suggest he give a monograph upon the subject. Every time Editor Weaver can find an audience of more than one he locks the doors and launches into an eulogy of his town. There is no escape until he thinks his hearers have been impressed. Usually, they are.

HAS GROWN RAPIDLY.

That there is considerable excuse for "boosting" the Pontotoc metropolis is true. When the census of 1907 was taken, Ada was only the tenth city in size in the state with a population of 3,690. Since then, under the progressive impetus, given by her citizens, the town has grown faster, it is claimed than any other in the state with the exception of Sapulpa. Its present population is estimated at 6,000. Ada will celebrate its ninth birthday, December 10.

NO VACANT BUILDINGS.

Three railroads enter Ada—the St. Louis and San Francisco, the Oklahoma Central, and the M. K. & T. These have largely contributed to its prosperity, making it a mercantile distributing point for a large area of surrounding territory. Building is being carried forward rapidly to meet demands which has far exceeded present accommodations. A remarkable fact is that there is not now a single vacant business or private structure in the town. Two modern apartment buildings are to be erected by a company which is now organizing for the purpose. Office buildings are also going up.

Ada, among the smaller towns of the state, is gaining the name of the city of churches. Six handsome houses of worship with parsonages in keeping with their character, occupy grounds which the congregation own. The buildings are also in their name.

CEMENT AND ASPHALT.

The most noted industry in Ada is its Portland cement business. Since a cement plant was established there two years ago, the average annual output has amounted to 1,600,000 barrels. But its wealth of asphaltum, in a few years time promises to exceed it in point of value and scope of activity. There is no central company mining the asphalt near Ada at present but one will soon be formed to combine the interests of the half dozen individual contractors, who are now engaged in this enterprise. When this is done, money will be raised to advertise the resource and compete with the three big sheet asphaltum companies now in the market. The asphalt produced in Ada is what is known as rock asphalt, and it is contented by these marketing this product that it is more flexible and durable than the sheet asphaltum which is laid upon a base of cement. The rock asphalt is the natural article all the way through and is recognized by its darker and pebbly surface.

The Ada asphalt mines now have a contract for 2,500 cars to be used in paving the streets of Lawton and have shipped large quantities to Kansas City and Fort Worth. About 200 men are engaged in the industry. Experts have estimated that there is enough asphalt in the state of Oklahoma to pave the entire United States.

ANENT ADA ENTERPRISE.
An instance of Ada enterprise is shown by the act of its citizens when the legislature in September 1908, located the east central State Normal school there, but failed to make any provision for its maintenance. To keep the school and continue in its operation the people quickly raised $15,000. The present attendance of the school, exclusive of the pupils who are rightly classed as students in the grades is 500, about one half of whom are non-resident.

ITS TAXABLE WEALTH.

The present taxable wealth of Ada is estimated at $2,225,000. This only comprehends property within the corporate limits. Within the past fifteen months, $250,000 has been expended in public utilities which the city owns. These include schools, valued at $75,000, a water works system, 15 miles of concrete side walks, and a city hall.

If its past progress can be accepted as an index to its future, the little town of Ada is destined to become one of the great cities of the Southwest.

In Justice Court.

They were not looking for work probably, but they got it just the same. John Rogers, Frank Hamilton and Harry Davis, Weary Willies, were arraigned before Justice Brown today and plead guilty to the charge of vagrancy. In return, they received a fine of $10 each and thirty days at hard labor on the public highway. Pretty tough luck to get handed a package like that, but, really, the people don't like to be held up by a gang of shiftless guys wanting grub, when feed stuff is as high as it is.

Dick Tatum was fined $10 and cost for running his horse between here and Ford City. Mr. Tatum paid the fine like a man and went home, glad it was all over.

Marriage Licenses.

The following licenses to wed were issued Saturday from the county judge's office: R. L. Todd, 18, Ada, and Grace Smith, 22, Ada; Chas. Gillaspay, 26, Conway, and Maggie Cannon, 17, Conway.

XXth Century Notice.

There will be a meeting of the XXth Century Club at the Normal building on Tuesday, Dec. 7th, at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. MRS. TOM HOPE.

MAY BE MESSAGE AS TO NICARAGUA

PRESIDENT TAFT CALLS SECRETARY KNOX TO WHITE HOUSE FOR CONFERENCE.

Reports Indicate Revolutionists Are Preparing to Make an Important Fight Soon.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Taft tonight called Secretary Knox in consultation on a topic thought to be the sending to congress of a hot and stringing special message on the imbroglio with Nicaragua.

Neither the President nor Mr. Knox would say anything of their conference. It is regarded as likely, however, that the Nicaraguan matter was uppermost, and it is also intimated that the discussion took the form of outlining a policy that will cover the whole Central American country.

Senor Salvador Castillio, the representative here of the insurrectionary message tonight which declared that Gen. Estrada has left Bluefields and has taken the field for the battle said to be imminent in the vicinity of Rama.

It is believed in view of the reported desertions from President Zelaya's ranks, that this fight may be a turning point in the war, especially because of the reports that Zelaya's men are both short of ammunition and in extremities for food.

DUTY OF ADA BUSINESS MEN.

On the 17th inst., the Farmers' County Institute will hold its annual session in Ada, at which time visiting experts in agriculture will deliver addresses along their respective lines, and the occasion is a rare opportunity for the farmers of Pontotoc county to receive such instruction in crop growing as will be of untold benefit to themselves and community. In Pontotoc, as well as a number of other east side counties, the lack of interest in scientific and advanced methods in agriculture is distressing, and this apathy on the part of Pontotoc farmers is costing the county many thousands of dollars annually in crop production.
When the state sent three expert lecturers here last spring to organize the institute, there were less than a half dozen farmers at the meeting to hear them. These men are employed by the state because they have given their lives to scientific investigation and study in the field of agriculture and they have a message of incalculable worth for every farmer in this county.

When this meeting occurs here on the 17th inst., the court room should be filled to overflowing with farmers eager to know new and better methods in farming. The business men of Ada can, between now and Dec. 17, advertise this meeting among their farmer customers and tell them of the benefits to be derived. Will you do it? Help advertise this meeting which is directed to encourage improved methods on the farm.

THE EVENING NEWS.

If you are not a subscriber of the Evening News, be one.

It is a paper for every member of the family. It presents all the News of Ada in complete and attractive form. All the important happenings of the night and day are handed you at the supper table.

As to Oklahoma people and Oklahoma topics, the Evening News has correspondents all over the state who each day transmit the News which is presented in an attractive manner. This policy permits of more cities and towns being given representation; and makes the Evening News more and more like a letter from home to the Oklahomans who sell live in the state, but not in the old home town—and to the former Adaites who have drifted to other states.

The state capital service of the Evening News is as complete as it is possible to make it. The same may be said of other offices and headquarters.

Referring to the News of the world —the Evening News has it. In this connection, as in others, quality and not quantity, is the policy followed and no one appreciates this fact more than the many business men who each day read the Ada Evening News.

PRAIRIE OIL DOMESTICATES.

On Friday, the Oklahoma Pipe Line Co., was issued a charter for the purpose of piping or transporting oil across the state. This is understood to be a subsidiary corporation of the Prairie Oil & Gas and Standard Oil Companies. Mr. Fitzpatrick, general attorney for the Prairie Oil & Gas Co., stated that it was contended by the authorities of the state that a foreign corporation like the Prairie Oil and Gas Co. could not construct such a line in the state and that whilst they had full confidence in their legal right to extend present lines, they wanted to avoid any conflict with the state of Oklahoma or any appearance of disregarding or disobeying the laws of the state, and for that reason they had organized a domestic corporation for such purpose.

About a year ago the Prairie Oil & Gas Co. started to construct a line across the state to the Arkansas state line and the attorney general instituted a suit in the District Court of Logan county to prevent such construction; the commissioners of the several counties of the state over which such proposed line was to run had granted the pipe line company a right of way across the public highways and the governor, after ascertaining that such was the case, instructed the attorney general to dismiss the suit. This he refused to do and the district court sustained the attorney general. The case was taken to the Supreme Court, which held that the attorney general could not maintain an action in the name of the state in the district court without the consent or direction of the governor, but further held that the county attorney of any county in the state had the right, independent of the governor, to institute such action in the name of the state against the Prairie Oil & Gas Co., which action by the county attorney could not be dismissed by the governor. After this decision of the Supreme Court, in effect holding that the county attorney could bring such action, no further effort was made by the Prairie Oil and Gas Co. to build its line across the state to the Arkansas state line and the question is suggested by many whether or not the Prairie Oil & Gas Co. was not more in awe of the several county attorneys of the state than of the attorney general, whom the Supreme Court held could not bring such original action of his own responsibility, and independently of the governor, except in the Supreme court.

Thus the decision of the Supreme Court caused another corporation to domesticate, and accept the yoke and burden of the state. And the people are placed under renewed obligation to the high tribunal which since the inauguration of statehood has sustained with signal ability the rights of the people.

At all events, Oklahoma is to be congratulated in having this great pipe line constructed under a corporation created under its own laws.
—Pauls Valley Democrat.

DEMOCRATIC DAY AT McALESTER

Large Number of Visitors—Gov. Haskell Is Principal Speaker of the Day.

McAlester, Ok., Dec. 4.—This was Democratic Day in McAlester, and although rain fell steadily from early this morning until late tonight, there were many members of the party in the city, every section of the county being represented. Gov.
Haskell arrived late last night and hundreds of democrats as well as Republicans called at the McFarland Hotel throughout the day to pay their respects.

The governor spoke this afternoon to a crowd that packed the district court room. Judge Cole having adjourning court that the room might be used. The Governor made a general talk, devoting much of his time to discussing matters relating to taxation. In an interview today he said, in speaking of the rate case:

"We want to be fair to the railroads; we want them, as well as all other concerns doing legitimate business in this state, to earn a reasonable amount on their investment, but we also want services performed for a reasonable compensation." He said the railroad's own experts admitted they made more money in this state at 2c per mile than they do in Iowa at 3c.

One hundred and fifty democrats sat down to a banquet tonight, which lasted until near midnight. Gov. Haskell was the principal speaker. He responded to the toast, Present and Future State Policy of Oklahoma Democracy.

Mrs. Haskell and daughter, Miss Jane Haskell, accompanied the governor, and while the ladies did not attend the banquet, a large number called at the hotel during the afternoon and evening.

Attack of Lord Minto Has Effect of Increasing Precautions for Lord Morley.

London, Dec. 5.—Mr. Asquith, the Prime Minister, though not a nervous man, has come to regard his automobile as a most effectual protection against the suffragettes. He intended to go to Windsor on Monday last by train, but the news of the attack on Mr. Winston Churchill decided him to go by automobile, and so get direct from his own door to the Castle entrance without the need of public appearance at two railway stations, where the ladies of the purple, Green and Yellow might reasonably be expected to be on the watch.
The recent attack on Lord Minto has increased the precautions. The police have a feeling that no high official of the India office can claim immunity from danger after that attack and the murder of Sir Curzon

MUCH BITTERNESS FEATURES CAMPAIGN

BRITISH POLITICS AROUSE MORE EXCITEMENT THAN SHOW
IN MANY YEARS.

QUESTION OF LORDS' ACTIONS

This is Principal Topic of Discussion, and Tarin Goes to the Background.

London, Dec. 6.—It, as has been freely stated, the plan of the Conservative leaders was to force tariff reform to the front in the election campaign and far as possible thrust the question of the Lord's veto into the background, their plan has already miscarried. The campaign both in the press and from the platform is being waged with a bitterness not seen in British politics in many years, but it is exclusively upon the question of the action of the Lords.

All the election manifestos issued up to the present by the Liberal, Radical, Labor and Socialist parties have put the attack upon the Lords to the forefront, as have all the speeches from the government's side.

More significant still is the fact that the whole religious body of the country, Anglican, nonconformist and Catholic, appears to be against the Lords' pretensions. The Archbishop of Canterbury's abstentions. The Archbishop of Canterbury's abstention from voting in the division in the House of Lords and the Archbishop of York's frank denunciation of Lord Lansdowne's resolution undoubtedly had a great effect. Following the manifesto issued by the National Council of the Free churches declaring the action of the House of Lords "makes reforms supported by nonconformists impossible," the Church Times, the most influential and widely circulated church paper, together with the Christian World and the organs of the Methodist, Baptist and Catholic sections, declare for the Commons in the struggle against the Lords.

In the meantime neither Mr. Balfour or any other Conservative leader had advanced any definite proposal for tariff reform or given the slightest indication of how the Conservative propose to find the money to replace the rejected budget proposals.

$1000.00 FOR THE BEST EAR OF CORN

GROWN BY FRED C. PALIN, AN IN-DIANA MAN AND EXHIBITED AT OMAHA.

Hoosier Farmer Carries Off Prize for Best Ten Ears—How It Was Propagated.

Omaha, Dec. 4.—Fred C. Palin, of Newton, Indiana, has the best single ear of corn the world ever produced, while another Indian, J. H. Overstreet, of Franklin, has the best ten ears of corn ever seen, according to the judges at the National Corn Exposition who have just awarded the $50,000 offered by the show and given the first place in both sweepstakes to Indiana farmers.

G. L. Kerlin, of Franklin, Indiana, won the prize offered for the best bushel of corn in the world. It is the third successive year that the first prize for ten ears of corn has gone to Indiana.

For the best single ear of corn in the world, Mr. Palin has been awarded the Kellogg trophy worth $1,000; while Mr. Overstreet takes back to his state the $1000 silver trophy offered by the Indiana Corn Growers association for the best ten ears, last year was won by L. B. Clore who also won the trophy two years ago. The third winning gives the trophy to Indiana permanently.

"I spent several years producing that ear of corn," said Mr. Palin, who has produced the world's best ear.

"My parent stock consisted of Reed's yellow bent seed as the male plant and the mother plant was from the lexander gold standard variety.
The corn was planted two rows of yellow dent and then two rows of gold standard. The two rows of standard were detasseled the first two years. This produced the seed from which the world's best ear of corn has been produced."

The exposition will open in Omaha Monday.

BIG AUDIENCE GREET

EVANGELIST RAMSEY

REVIVAL STARTED LAST NIGHT
FILLS HOUSE.

The Blind Tennessee Evangelist Delivers Masterly Sermon at the Methodist Church.

The First Methodist church was comfortably filled last night at the initial service of the fifteen days' revival begun Sunday morning by Joe Ramsey, the Tennessee evangelist, and Rev. Smoot, the singing evangelist.

Rev. Ramsey, taking as his text Genesis 32-24, severely arraigned Jacob from the time of his marriage to the "velled lady" until his conversion.

The evangelist injected quite a bit of humor into the meeting, stating that a laugh may be immediately followed by a tear, as they both come from the same headquarters. At the beginning of the service he said that husbands have had their jeans pockets searched during Thanksgiving week and the search will be continued during Christmas, but requested that the ladies please "take 'em off," the request being followed by the general taking off of feminine headgear.

After a handshaking of those Christians who had fallen from grace, Rev. Ramsey asked all Christians and active workers of the various churches of the city to remain at the church for an outline of succeeding meetings while the rest of the audience was asked to quietly leave the building.

As the service last night was the starting one of the series from which much good is expected to result, the evangelist and workers did not extend themselves very much, but beginning tonight the prediction is that an "energy" which, it is hoped, has never been equalled in Ada, will display itself at the meetings.

The choir, under the leadership of Rev. Smoot, is rendering excellent music.

COLD WEATHER

IS TO CONTINUE

WEATHER MAN WARNS OF SOME MORE COLDNESS.

Snow or Rain Is the Prediction for Tuesday—Much Rain and Winter Over State.

The weather forecast for today says a continuation of the first real cold snap of the season, also a fair sky. For tomorrow either rain or snow is in store for us.

Unlike yesterday, today's weather has not moderated to much extent. Up to noon the sun had not appeared but the mercury indicated 5 degrees warmer than at eight o'clock this morning. However, to one on the street, it appears that the thermometer is not giving us the correct "dope" as the air, a slight breeze from the north feels unusually chilly. The following dispatches to the Evening News denotes much rain and cold over the state.

Weather Delays Trains.

Special to News

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 5.—All trains running into this city from the north were from two to six hours late today on account of snow and cold weather. The coldest here this morning was 24 degrees above zero. There was a great deal of suffering among the poor. The weather is moderating to-night.

Cold at McAlester.

Special to News

McAlester, Ok., Dec. 5.—Following an inch and a half rainfall yesterday and last night, the mercury dropped to 21 degrees above this morning.

Heavy Rain at Durant.

Special to News

Durant, Ok., Dec. 5.—A heavy rain accompanied by a sharp decline in temperature fell here yesterday afternoon.

The Club Meeting.

On account of the pourdown Saturday night there was no meeting of the 25,000 club and the meeting has been called off indefinitely. The club is very desirous of holding a meeting which is of much importance to Ada and if the weather is favorable another attempt will be made within two or three nights.

UNFINISHED HEATING

PLANT CAUSES VACATION

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE CITY
DISMISSED TODAY.

Several Hundred Children From Their Studies Today on Account of No Heat.

Students of the public schools of Ada are taking a vacation today on account of the unfinished condition of the heating plant.

This action of dismissing the schools releases an attendance of 325 at the North Side school and 111 at the East Side school. 289 pupils of the South Side school are attending the Model school of the state normal, which is being conducted in the normal building. All grades in north Ada are above the sixth grade and those of north and east Ada are above the seventh grade. These pupils are attending the normal.

Those who are in the seventh and lower grades are without school. Supt. Robinson is doing all he can to offset the bad effects of the situation and each morning will give the students an amount of written work to be done at their homes.

Uncertain Conditions.

Although the schools were dismissed only for today, it is highly probable that the same action will be necessary for practically every day until the heating apparatuses are installed. The contractor was to have had the plants in shape by the 15th of this month, but owing to probable lack of management and delay in receiving materials, this cannot be accomplished. The earliest date of completion can not be reasonably expected before Christmas.

It appears that the city schools were doing nicely before the forced vacation was necessary.

Ninety-five per cent of the regular enrollment was in regular attendance, and everything was running along smoothly.

The Compulsory Law.

Supt. Robinson, in referring to the fact that the city board of education has resolved to enforce a 5-months school attendance in Ada this year, stated that it would be much better for the school census to be taken at the first of the term than at the first of the year. This would make a more thorough compulsory 5-months attendance. The only reason the truancy officer has not been after the "hooky" students, is because of the taking of the census at the first of the year.

Until the present cold snap the school buildings of the city have been heated by oil stoves, but with the weather at the freezing point the oilers lack a good deal of furnishing enough heat to make the rooms comfortable.

The Local Markets.

The following prices prevail in Ada today on cotton, corn and farm products. (These prices will be changed daily and can be relied upon.)

NORTHWESTERN ROADS REPORT MOVEMENT OF FREIGHT GOOD.

Official of Switchmen's Union Says Men at Other Places Declare They Are Ready to Quit.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 5.—The cold and snowy weather which set in yesterday has seriously affected freight traffic on the Northern Pacific and some parts of the Great Northern, according to statements issued by the general managers of those roads tonight. Passenger trains are being run with two engines. The trains on all roads are arriving from one to four hours late tonight.

An official statement says the Northern Pacific has all the men needed now and new arrivals are being shipped. Fifteen engines were working at Tacoma and things are being opened up at Seattle, according to General Manager Slade of the Northern Pacific. General Manager Gruber stated that the Great Northern had moved between 60 and 100 cars of wheat into Minneapolis today and that freight was handled at the Minnesota transfer today for the first time since the strike began.

President Hawley of the Switchmen's union declared he had received word from several Eastern points today that the switchmen in those places are ready to strike on a moment's notice.

Other Roadworkers May Strike.

New York, Dec. 5.—At a conference of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, held here today, Grand Master Lee and Fifth Vice President Murdock were named as a committee to decide whether the men shall go out or remain at work in case the demand which they will shortly present to fifty-two Eastern roads for a 10 per cent increase is refused. It is expected that the final schedule of grievances will be in the hands of the managers on Thursday of this week.

The movement planned will have nothing in common with the general strike being conducted at present by the Switchmen's union of North America, which is distinctly a rival and an enemy of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, says an official statement.

JIM JEFFRIES OBJECTS

TO WOMEN AT WILL

SAYS THIS IS GOING TO BE A REAL FIGHT.

Wouldn't Want His Mother, Wife or Sister There—No Matinee Performance, He Declares.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—Referring to the published interview with Tex Rickard that if the fight be held in Nevada that there will likely be reserved seats for 5,000 women, Jim Jeffries said here today:

I don't think I would fancy that, nor do I think they mean to do this. This is going to be a fight, and I don't think I would want my wife, mother or sister to be there. They won't be, either, nor do I think those handling the fight will make special provisions for the fair ones. It certainly will not be a matinee performance. Let the ladies who think they want to see the fight look at the pictures afterward. What's the use of talking of Nevada or Utah, anyway? California is the place you will see the fight held.

DR-R-R! THIS ISN'T COLD WEATHER, NO!
IT'S GOT TO GO TWENTY-FOUR BEFORE 'TIS COLD.

That's What the Weather Man Tells Us and He's Supposed to Know What He's Talking About!

Old Boreas blew into Ada Saturday night on the Cold Storage Limited and seemed to thoroughly enjoy himself with his piercing north wind and hard, cold rain proposition.

But, after a while, he got wise that his funny business was not the least bit—no, not one tiny bit—popular with the Ada population and about noon he got busy moderating the coldness to the extent that a fellow could venture out of his house without having his whiskers blown off.

However, Boreas got "raw" again last night and so completely did he have the situation in hand that he actually—yes, actually—dictated the bed room routine in such a, cruel manner as to chase many a barefoot (would-be) sleeper to the closet after another supply of quilts.

"Looks to me like a cold wave," ventured a shivering citizen last night whose "uncle" is keeping his overcoat for him.

"Cold wave! Huh, it's no cold wave when it is only 28 above," replied his friend, decked out in one of those high collared coats that means the owner rides in a friend's automobile.

And the man with the overcoat was officially correct. For the weather bureau does not recognize weather as cold until the mercury hits the 24 above mark. Anything above that mark is plain weather, but once the thermometer says below the dead line of 24, a cold wave is recognized.

Despite the weather bureau's contention, several persons were heard to admit Saturday night that it was getting cold. The temperature dropped below the freezing point during the night and sealskin underwear, far side in, was very popular the next morning if you had it.

At eight o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 30 above, the freezing point, which is supposed to be chilly enough to draw on your overcoat.

We are lucky here, though, as in Western Oklahoma several inches of snow has fallen. See definition of cold wave above.

J. H. Whiteley Comes Tuesday.
C. E. Whiteley, who is in the city holding the body of his father, W. B. Whiteley, has received a telegram from his brother, J. H. Whiteley, who is cashier of the Perre Marquette railroad at Muskegon, Mich., advising that he will arrive in Ada tomorrow afternoon over the Frisco at five o'clock. The brothers will then decide what they will do with the body of their father. Although having been in Ada but a few days, Mr. Whiteley has made many friends by his strong personality.

FAR IN THE NORTH

MISSIONS FOUNDED IN THE LAND OF THE ESKIMOS.

Spread of Christianity Has Been Marked Among People of the Most Inhospitable Land on the Earth.

Rev. Dr. R. J. Renison, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, speaking here before a large congregation on missionary work among the Eskimos, said he considered the Eskimos were the only civilized race in the world that were secure from the encroachment of the civilized white man and that it therefore escaped extinction, or at least degradation, from contact with so-called civilization, a San Francisco dispatch says.

Unless the earth shall change its axis, thereby changing the climate of the bleak and inhospitable north, he said, no nation will ever attempt to deprive the Eskimo of his land. This peculiar people inhabit a vast territory, yet, notwithstanding the vastness of their domain, there is only one tribe. They speak the common language and have the same customs, whether in the Hudson bay country or in the Baffin's bay regions.

The speaker was unable to understand why they had chosen such a habitation, if they really had chosen it.

"In the brief three months of summer," said the speaker, "the Eskimo hunts the seal and walrus and engages in fishing to lay up a store of food for the nine months of winter, and when the winter comes he saws the hard snow into large blocks and with these builds a house in the shape of a bee hive, pours water over it and it freezes hard and makes a tight dwelling, secure against the wind. The opening of the door is so small that one must crawl on his hands and knees to enter the igloo. Bushes are spread upon the floor and seals, blubber in a hollowed stone is lighted and serves for lamp and cooking stove.

"In the Baffin's bay country the protestant Episcopal church has the most northerly mission in the world. It was founded 30 years ago by Rev. Mr. Peck, who, after learning the language, spent several years in converting the people of the ice-bound land. The first church building he erected was built of sealskins sewn together and when it was finished the dogs devoured it over night. The permanent church was built soon thereafter with lumber shipped from Canada.

"Mr. Peck found these people to have an innate sense of right and wrong and found them faithful and trustworthy in all respects. Before they became Christians the Eskimos used to kill all their aged and decrepit men and used to force the old women to commit suicide. This was done under what they conceived to be the stern law of necessity, but since that time the practice has been abandoned. They are sincere Christians, or at least those of them that have come within reach of the missionary influence."

Don't waste your money. There are plenty of good uses for it. Don't pay 40 to 50 cents a pound for baking powder. K C Baking Powder is guaranteed to do better work, and it saves you 20 cents on a pound can.

The Engaged Girl's Worries

"Haven't you noticed how thin I've grown?" asked the engaged girl of her chum, who had just returned from a trip.

"You aren't quite up to the usual mark, now that you call my attention to it, dear," murmured the chum.

"Let me see," said the engaged girl. "It was six weeks ago, wasn't it, that I wrote you Tom had proposed? He passed one delicious week with me, then, three days after he arrived home, my ring came. Yes, I know you've been dying to ask me about it, and that's what I'm coming to."

"Well, when I opened the box and saw that lovely solitaire it seemed as though Tom was near me somehow. Of course, any engaged girl can understand when I say that it compensated in a measure for his absence. The family were exclaiming over the ring when I took it from the box and started to slip it on my finger.

"For goodness' sake, child," gasped Aunt Mary, "don't you know that it's bad luck for anyone but Tom to put that ring on your finger the first time?"

"Of course everybody laughed, as we always do whenever Aunt Mary parades her superstitions. Then, just to show her that I didn't give a particle of weight to such foolishness, I slipped the ring on and waved my finger under Aunt Mary's nose. She looked deeply injured, as usual, and walked out of the room. In my thoughtless way I went on admiring the diamond and thinking what a dear Tom is.

"That afternoon as I was dressing to go to the embroidery circle meeting and anticipating the sensation my ring would create, I suddenly remembered that I had left it on the washstand in the bathroom. Of course I ran to get it, and just as I reached forward to pick it up, in some unexplainable manner it slipped forward on the marble and down it went into the pipe!

"I was simply paralyzed for a moment. Then I flew downstairs and phoned for a plumber to come post-haste, meanwhile wringing my hands and not daring to try to recover the ring myself for fear I might not get it at all. Mother and Aunt Mary were in the library and had heard me when I phoned. Mother was a perfect dear and never reproached me for my carelessness, but if ever a mortal looked triumphant Aunt Mary did.

"It seemed ages before the plumber arrived, and when he finally did come of course he had to go back to the shop for some tool or other. Well, when he got started he worked and worked, and after an agonizing time he actually fished up my ring! Relieved! I could have kissed him, grimy as he was! But I was so worn out from the nervous strain that I wasn't fit to go to the meeting. It was too late, anyhow.

"The next day I took my ring down to the jeweler's to have him clean it, because some particles of dirt had got under the setting and I wouldn't attempt to clean it myself. I took it off and laid it on the counter while he wrote my name on a little slip. When he reached for the ring it wasn't there!

"At first I thought it was a joke he had played on me, for I've been going to him for years. So I laughed and told him not to frighten me. But soon I saw by his manner that it wasn't a joke at all. The ring was really gone!

"We turned everything over, I looked up and down the floor, into crevices and every possible place I could think of. Then I grew hysterical and I really believe that in spite of his knowing me well he began to suspect me of some ruse. As I leaned against the show-case and wept I heard something tinkle, and there, hanging to the fuzzy sleeve of my jacket, was my ring!

"I never mentioned a word of the occurrence at home, but, of course, Aunt Mary had to go to that jeweler's the very next day to have a pin clasp repaired, and she heard the whole story. By that time the ring was beginning to get on my nerves to such an extent that I couldn't sleep. I'd wake up in the middle of the night in a cold perspiration, having dreamed that I had lost it. I'd hide it in all sorts of queer places for fear it would be stolen, and then I would nearly go into spasms because I had forgotten where I had put the ring.

"Finally, after I dropped it at the matinee one day and had a terrible time rescuing it from under the feet of a fat man who sat near me, I decided to deposit it with mother's valuables at the bank and there's where it reposes at present. Do you wonder that I look anxious and worn?"

"Well, it's a rather poor story," yawned the chum. "Now, I've got something really interesting to tell you. Do you know?"

"Tom's coming next week," interrupted the engaged girl, blushing prettily. "and I'm going to ask him to exchange the ring for one exactly like it, so he can be the very first one to put it on my finger. And never again will I ridicule Aunt Mary's warnings or call them foolish superstitions."

"If Tom is as clever as he thinks he is," said the chum, "he'll simply pretend to change the ring and then he'll put the same one on your finger and you and your Aunt Mary will not know the difference."

"Tom would never deceive me, never!" declared the engaged girl, indignantly.

"Oh, you dear, witty thing!" said the chum.
